

I do not think that further consolidation of media ownership is in the best interest of the public. Please insure the diversity of ownership within the various media outlets.